BACKGROUND

A Touch of Air Custom Airbrush is a full-service body and paint shop located in Wahiawa on Oahu, Hawaii that was established in 2007. This company is able to do a variety of repair, paint, and collision work. They also specialize in custom airbrush and fine artwork on almost any type of medium (cars, motorcycles, surfboards, wall murals, bicycles, helmets, body painting, fine art...etc.)

CHALLENGES

Chad Morisato, owner of A Touch of Air Customer Airbrush had moved into their current location and the GSA got in contact with him. They wanted to work with Chad after hearing about his shop and the type of work they do. However, Chad needed help to register his company in the Government System.

ACTIONS

A Hawaii PTAC Procurement Specialist guided Chad through government contracting registration and resources, helping him to register in DUNS and SAM. The Procurement Specialist also set up a custom bid match for the company,

RESULTS

After completing the registrations, Chad was able to accept work from government agencies and was able to win an award of $3250 from the GSA for collision repair.
